

Cotemar receives the SRC award for the ninth consecutive year

March 2, 2021

Mexico City, Mexico.- For the ninth consecutive year, Cotemar received the Socially Responsible Company (SRC) award presented by the Mexican Center for Philanthropy (CEMEFI, Spanish acronym) and the Latin American Alliance for Social Responsibility (AliaRSE, Spanish acronym), to highlight the Company's efforts to give continuity to its social responsibility endeavors despite the challenges of the past year.

This award validates Cotemar's drive to fully comply with the standards it has set regarding Quality of Life within the Company, Business Ethics, Care and Conservation of the Environment, and Community Outreach, in addition to being a pillar in terms of its business culture, policies, and behavior practices: <https://www.cemefi.org/esr/>

Cotemar is a world-class sustainable company that is committed to developing the communities where it operates and to caring for the environment. Also, it has a health program that promotes the comprehensive development of its employees and their families as a key aspect to be able to balance work life.

"At Cotemar we perform our operations with the highest ethical levels of performance, so we are proud to be recognized for our commitment to social responsibility for the ninth consecutive year," said an internal Cotemar source.

Our relationships are an expression of both our and our constant strive for excellence. As a result, Cotemar encourages a healthy and safe work environment that fosters a good quality of life for its employees and contributes to their professional and human development.
