

Cotemar: Eleven Years Operating As A Socially Responsible Company

March 14, 2023.

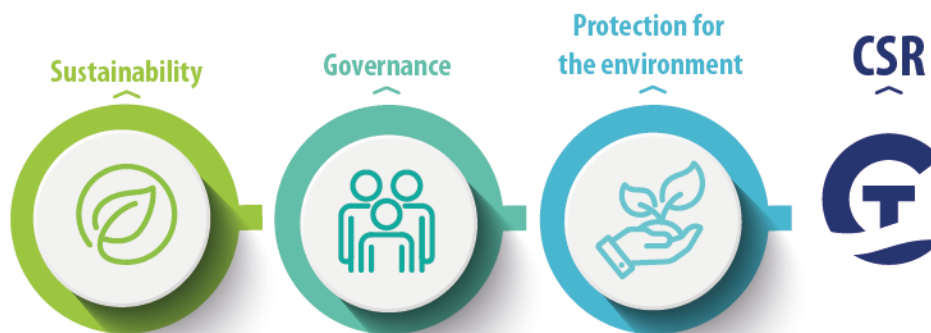

- Cotemar has received the award as a Socially Responsible Company for the past 11 years.
- Cotemar is a world-class sustainable company that is committed to ensuring the wellbeing of its employees and the development of the communities where it operates, in addition to caring for the environment.

Mexico City, Mexico Once again, for the 11th straight year, Grupo Cotemar has received the CSR Award for operating as a Socially Responsible Company. This award acknowledges the efforts made by the company by implementing social responsibility in its policies and processes, promoting a culture of sustainability, governance, and protection for the environment, respecting employees' rights, and addressing the needs and expectations of our stakeholders.

Every year, the Mexican Center for Philanthropy (CEMEFI, Spanish acronym) and the Latin American Alliance for Social Responsibility (AliaRSE, Spanish acronym) grant the CSR Award in Mexico. This recognition consists of a diagnostic process of several areas within the company that are certified and endorsed annually by the Cemefi. The criteria for granting this award becomes stricter every year to maintain the corporate responsibility culture up-to-date. The CSR Award provides the company's employees, investors, clients, the authorities, and society with the assurance that Cotemar is an organization that is publicly committed with social responsibility.

Cotemar's employees mentioned that they are proud of working for a company that is committed to developing the communities where it operates and to caring for the environment.

For over 44 years, Cotemar has always been a sustainable company that is committed to the wellbeing of our employees, the development of the communities where we operate, and caring for the environment.
