

Cotemar leads LinkedIn's Top Companies 2023 list

April 20, 2023

Mexico City, Mexico. LinkedIn has released the fourth edition of its Top Companies 2023 list, where it ranks Cotemar in first place. This list ranks the top 25 companies in Mexico that support professional growth based on LinkedIn's exclusive data and takes into account different aspects of how important the professional development of employees is for each company.

The LinkedIn Top Companies list is an annual reference of the 25 top companies in Mexico that support professional advancement. The list is prepared based on an analysis of factors such as employee promotions within a company and how employees are gaining skills while employed at the company, as well as the number of layoffs and staff turnover, which must not exceed 10% per year of the total workforce.

This list is also useful for job seekers, as it provides them with information including the most in-demand skills, top locations, and other insights about each company. For example, the most important skills to possess to get a job with Cotemar include customer service systems, management, and analytical reasoning.

As a bonus, Cotemar is the first and only energy sector company in Mexico on the LinkedIn Top Companies 2023 list, the company reaffirms its commitment to the personal development, wellbeing, and quality of life of its employees.
