

Cotemar received the "2023 Exceptional Companies" award with an Exceptional Level

February 22nd of 2024.

Mexico City, Mexico.- Once again, Grupo Cotemar received the 2023 Exceptional Companies award, now with an Exceptional Level for Balance Practice, in the category of Promoting the Development and Quality of Life of Collaborators.

The Exceptional Companies Award is organized, for the third time, by the Business Coordinating Council, the Mexican Business Council, the Institute for the Promotion of Quality, and the Communication Council, with which it is sought to make visible the Social Dimension and solidarity of companies and institutions, recognizing their contribution to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG), the culture of innovation, and their commitment to excellence.

This award with an Exceptional level was received for being practices that are benchmarks for the generation of innovative actions and outstanding benefits in their social dimension, positioning themselves as pioneers in promoting the quality of life of collaborators, developing suppliers, accelerating digitization, contribute to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), and promote transparency and ethics.

The final selection of the winning practices was conducted by an Awards Council, comprised by representatives of the convening organizations, which carried out the process without knowing the identity of the participating companies, in order to guarantee an objective and transparent decision based on the proposal of the Evaluating Group, the merits of practices, and the consensus of the Awards Council.

The 2023 Exceptional Companies award in the category of Promoting the Development and Quality of Life of Collaborators with an Exceptional level is a source of pride for Grupo Cotemar, as it ratifies its commitment to its employees, shareholders, Board of Directors, customers, suppliers, government, commercial partners, civil associations, and communities here it is present.
